UTAH STATE FAIR

Heads of Departments and Scores of Workmen Busy in Preparatory Work.

W. C. Ellison of Minneapolis, a poultry expert and licensed judge, highly recommended by the American Poultry association, has been secured to judge the poultry exhibits at the state fair this fall. This is announced in a letter to Secretary H. S. Ensign from R. R. Irvine of Provo, vice president of the fair association and superintendent of the poultry department. Mr. Ellison will pass upon all fowl except pigeons.

Three carloads of stock have arrived at the fair grounds from Minneapolis and work of erection of the grand stand will be begun at once, the company having contracted to have the steel frame up by August 17. Bids are now being asked for the contract for carpenter work and will be opened and awarded by Secretary Ensign on August 12.

J. G. McDonald, W. C. Winder and H. S. Ensign of the association visited the grounds yesterday with Don Carlos Young, architect. They found that there would be no difficulty in having all in readiness for the opening of the big fair. The race track is almost completed and will be ready for a month's practice for the horsemen before the opening.

Fred W. Chambers, state fish and game warden, has been getting together a collection of bird specimens from all over the state that will be an attractive feature. Among these are five snowy white herons received from James Knudsen, deputy game commissioner at Brigham City. These are in good condition and are being kept at the Murray fish hatchery. Mr. Chambers will also have many live wild geese, ducks, sage hens and other game birds in the collection.

On a visit to President Joseph F. Smith of the Mormon church yesterday, Dr. George V. Black, dean of the dental department of the University of Chicago, took occasion to speak in highly complimentary terms of the Utah boys who have attended or are now at the university, of which he is a bright and particular star. He said that they were studious, steady and able and that the institution of which he is a part was doing very well.

Dr. Black and his son, Dr. A. V. Black, left in the afternoon for Ogden, where they will make a short visit before leaving for Alaska. During yesterday morning an automobile accident occurred near about the city, the party including Dr. George F. Richards, Jr., Dr. W. M. Waddell, Dr. W. A. Spikes, Dr. J. F. Tolhurst, Dr. E. L. Evans and Dr. J. F. Christianson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Whitehill are now in their new home at 967 First avenue.

SKIN TORTURED BABIES SLEEP

A warm bath with Cuticura soap, followed by a gentle anointing with Cuticura ointment, is generally sufficient to insure immediate comfort in the most distressing forms of itching, burning and scaly eczema, rashes, irritations and inflammations of infants and children. Permit sleep for child and rest for parent, and point to permanent relief when other methods fail. Peace falls upon distracted households when these pure, sweet and gentle emollients enter. No other skin treatment costs so little and does so much.
